Letter from the Administrator / Carta del Administrador

May God bless and protect the people of Corpus Christi Church!

In the gospel today, “the people were astonished at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority –quasi potestatem habens– and not as the scribes” (Mk 1:21). The authority, power, and effectiveness of Jesus’ teaching marks the difference from all other teachers. In a survey, one of the reasons why many Catholics in this country has left the Church is poor preaching. Be that as it may, let us pray that our preachers today may partake in the authority, power and effectiveness of Jesus.

Jesus has earned for himself the prestige of a good teacher. His prestige is not from a diploma by a prestigious school but rather from a popular acclaim. Jesus establishes connection to the people. Jesus’ teaching demands attention. They are not obliged to pay attention but rather the people themselves love to listen to him. He speaks to his disciples of things that they need to know in their lives. Jesus knew what they need to hear. Jesus fills their empty heart and strengthens them with hope.

Teaching with authority, Jesus begets a response of faith. People follow him wherever He goes. They long to hear him. They are willing to undergo whatever it takes just to be near Jesus and have the most enjoyable time of their lives listening to him.

Pope Francis encourages preachers that preaching “cannot be lukewarm... preaching is always –let me say this term– a slap, it’s a slap, a slap that moves you and moves you forward” (Morning Homily, January 26, 2018).

We ask Jesus to inspire our preachers, for them to inspire us! Amen.

Devotedly in Christ,

MONSIGNOR JONAS ACHACOSO, JCD

¡Que Dios bendiga y proteja a los feligreses de la parroquia Corpus Christi!

En el evangelio de hoy, “Los oyentes quedaron asombrados de sus palabras, pues enseñaba como quien tiene autoridad – quasi potestatem habens– y no como los escribas” (Mc 1, 21). La autoridad, el poder y la eficacia de la enseñanza de Jesús marcan la diferencia de todos los demás maestros. En una encuesta, una de las razones por las que muchos católicos en este país han abandonado la Iglesia es la mala predicación. Sea como fuere, oremos para que nuestros predicadores de hoy puedan participar de la autoridad, el poder y la eficacia de Jesús.

Jesús se ha ganado el prestigio de un buen maestro. Su prestigio no proviene de un diploma, sino por una aclamación popular. Jesús establece conexión con la gente. La enseñanza de Jesús exige atención. No están obligados a prestar atención, sino que a la gente le encanta escucharlo. Les habla a sus discípulos de las cosas que necesitan saber en sus vidas. Jesús sabía lo que necesitaban escuchar. Jesús llena su corazón vacío y los fortalece con esperanza.

Al enseñar con autoridad, Jesús engendra una respuesta de fe. La gente lo sigue a dondequiera que vaya. Anhelan escucharlo. Están dispuestos a pasar por lo que sea necesario solo para estar cerca de Jesús y pasar el momento más agradable de sus vidas escuchándolo.

El Papa Francisco anima a los predicadores a que la predicación “no puede ser tibia... la predicación es siempre, déjeme decir este término, una bofetada, es una bofetada, una bofetada que los mueve y los hace avanzar” (Homilía matutina, 26 de enero de 2018).

¡Le pedimos a Jesús que inspire a nuestros predicadores, para que ellos nos inspiren a nosotros! Amén.

Devotamente en Cristo,

St. Joseph Academy

LETTER OF APPEAL

January 8, 2021

Dear Parents, Alums, and Friends of the Academy,

As you may know, for the past fourteen years, St. Joseph Catholic Academy has partnered with the New York City Department of Education to enable us to offer families in our geographic area free pre-kindergarten services to their four-year-old children. During this time period, our contract with the department of education has been renewed and extended several times. During the past fourteen years, hundreds of youngsters and their families have benefitted from our program, and many chose to continue their elementary education at the Academy.

Our Pre-K for All Program, aka Universal Pre-Kindergarten, has been the recipient of numerous accolades over the years from the parents of the children enrolled with us, as well as from the results of rigorous reviews performed by objective, independent evaluation teams. Our program is well-known and popular among parents with young children in the Astoria/LIC communities and has grown in size over the years from the thirty-six children who began in 2007 to over eighty-five children each year in recent years. It is no surprise to us that we have begun to receive inquiries from parents who are interested in applying to us for September 2021 classes.

What did come as a surprise to us was receiving a letter in late July denying our request to renew our contract – beginning September 2021. Initially, we believed that the city must have made some mistake since it was clear to us that our program deserved the high praise it has received over the years – including from representatives of the city's division of early childhood. The only reason given by the department of education for denying the Academy a new contract is that "the need for services in this [geographic] area was met by proposals that received higher quality scores."

We then respectfully requested an appeal of the decision to deny the Academy a new contract. In response, we received a letter dated August 31 from a protest officer from the city who stated that he would "issue my recommendation for disposition as expeditiously as possible." Through our diocesan representatives, we have continued to be in contact with officers within the NYC department of education to appeal the decision, but our protestations remain unanswered to date.

Long-term, the Academy depends on the success of our early childhood programs, and as taxpaying residents of our city, our parents deserve to choose to receive these free pre-kindergarten services by attending the program of their choice. Since this is a matter of great urgency - having the potential for serious negative consequences to the Academy's viability - we are making an appeal to you to support our efforts to rescind the city's decision to deny the Academy a contract. Since registration for the pre-kindergarten program begins very soon, please help us by visiting the Academy website at www.sjcalic.org/justice today and signing the on-line letter that will automatically be sent to the emails of several administrators within the department of education to express your outrage about this decision to deny the contract. Please share the above link with anyone who may be willing to assist us. Also, we have engaged our diocesan attorneys to initiate litigation against the city unless our case is favorably resolved.

Thank you for your cooperation and support.

Sincerely,

Luke Nawrocki, Principal

Lucy Alaimo, Educational Director

Sister Joan Martin, O.P., Board of Directors
