Letter from the Administrator / Carta del Administrador

May God bless and protect the people of Corpus Christi Church!

The theme that connects all the readings this Sunday is about “the beginning or the seeds of the kingdom of God”. As the kingdom of God is a sublime reality, the Bible uses figures of speech as allegory and parable to describe it to us.

In the first reading, the beginnings of the Kingdom is proclaimed by prophet Ezekiel like “crest of the cedar” which will be replanted on the mountain heights of Israel” and in which “birds of every kind shall dwell beneath it”.

The gospel describes the seeds of the kingdom by two parables: 1) the parable of the seeds scattered on the land; and 2) the parable of the mustard seed. All these parables point to the fact that the kingdom of God would begin from small things as the mustard seed which, by the grace of God, would become the largest of plants. In the same way, our little and ordinary actions are nothing small by the grace of God. He can make use of those small things for his glory.

Thus, as we are encouraged in the second reading: “We aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ so that each may receive recompense”.

Devotedly in Christ,

MONSIGNOR JONAS ACHACOSO, JCD

¡Que Dios bendiga y proteja a los feligreses de la Iglesia de Corpus Christi!

El tema que conecta todas las lecturas de este domingo es sobre “el principio o la semilla del reino de Dios”. Como el reino de Dios es una realidad sublime, la Biblia usa figuras retóricas como alegoría y parábola para describirnoslo.

En la primera lectura, el profeta Ezequiel proclama los comienzos del Reino como “un renuevo de la copa de un gran cedro” que será replantado en las alturas de las montañas de Israel.

El evangelio describe las semillas del reino mediante dos parábolas: 1) la parábola de las semillas esparcidas por la tierra; y 2) la parábola de la semilla de mostaza. Todas estas parábolas apuntan al hecho de que el reino de Dios comenzaría con cosas pequeñas como la semilla de mostaza que, por la gracia de Dios, se convertiría en la más grande de las plantas. De la misma manera, nuestras pequeñas y ordinarias acciones no son nada pequeñas por la gracia de Dios. Él puede hacer uso de esas pequeñas cosas para su gloria.

Así, como nos anima la segunda lectura: “procuramos agradarle, en el destierro o en la patria. Porque todos tendremos que comparecer ante el tribunal de Cristo, para recibir el premio o el castigo”.

Devotamente en Cristo,
