Letter from the Pastor / Carta del Pastor

May God bless and protect the people of Corpus Christi Church!

Like last Sunday's gospel, Jesus continues to reveal himself as the suffering Messiah who "is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." And the disciples again did not understand. They were instead arguing on who is the greatest among them, in human terms of course.

The criteria of greatness according to the world can be power, money, influence, prestige, etc. This is the kind of greatness that the apostles had in mind: the one who gives orders or one who is hierarchically important. This mindset generates envy, jealousy, and unhealthy competition. Jesus turns their thinking upside down and offers another understanding of greatness. Greatness is in being "the last of all and the servant of all". This understanding of greatness is contrary to what the apostles were thinking. Jesus teaches his disciples who will become heads of the Church a new standard in leadership: that the measure of greatness in Jesus' church is service.

To serve with humility. To serve with the sole purpose of giving all the glory to God. This is the kind of service that we are called for.

Devotedly in Christ,

MONSIGNOR JONAS ACHACOSO, JCD

¡Que Dios bendiga y proteja a los feligreses de la Iglesia de Corpus Christi!

Como el evangelio del domingo pasado, Jesús continúa revelándose como el Mesías sufriente que "va a ser entregado en manos de los hombres; le darán muerte, y tres días después de muerto, resucitará". Y los discípulos de nuevo no entendieron. En cambio, estaban discutiendo sobre quién es el más grande entre ellos, en términos humanos por supuesto.

Los criterios de grandeza según el mundo pueden ser el poder, el dinero, la influencia, el prestigio, etc. Este es el tipo de grandeza que tenían en mente los apóstoles: el que da órdenes o el que es jerárquicamente importante. Esta mentalidad genera envidia, celos y competencia malsana. Jesús cambia su forma de pensar y les ofrece otra comprensión de la grandeza. La grandeza está en ser "el último de todos y el servidor de todos". Esta comprensión de la grandeza es contraria a lo que pensaban los apóstoles. Jesús les enseña a sus discípulos que se convertirán en cabezas de la Iglesia un nuevo estándar de liderazgo: que la medida de la grandeza en la iglesia de Jesús es el servicio.

Servir con humildad. Servir con el único propósito de darle toda la gloria a Dios. Este es el tipo de servicio que se nos pide.

Devotamente en Cristo,

St. Joseph Catholic Academy - From the Desk of the Principal

YOUR CHILDREN, OUR STUDENTS, THE NATION'S FUTURE

August 2021

Dear Parishioners,

I am writing to you in mid-summer with wishes that you will be able to take time for some rest and relaxation for yourself and your family before school resumes in the fall. If you do not have school-aged children, consider this message an opportunity to keep informed about "Good News" from the Academy. Regardless, we at the Academy ask for your prayers and support as we are about to embark on another new beginning in September. It is one of the perks of being in education that one can always look forward to new beginning at the start of every new school year.

As you may know, Bishop DiMarzio has aligned six parishes to St. Joseph Catholic Academy – St. Joseph, Corpus Christi, Most Precious Blood, St. Rita, St. Patrick, and Our Lady of Mt. Carmel. This is done to help ensure that the pastoral needs of the children are met by the pastors and associates who celebrate liturgies and visit classrooms throughout the year. It is also a promise to the faithful in all six parishes that Catholic education is alive and well in the Astoria/LIC/Woodside neighborhoods. St. Joseph Catholic Academy extends an invitation to the families in all six parishes to consider giving your children the gift of a Catholic education.

In June, we graduated thirty-eight eighth graders representing all but one of the six aligned parishes. This is a testament to the viability and accessibility of the Academy – serving generations of families since the Sisters of St. Dominic – Amityville Congregation - came to the parish in 1880. Accessibility: many of our children receive free DOT yellow bus service, and viability: financial assistance is available to qualifying families.

We have much for which to be grateful as we begin again in September – most especially the generosity of our families and alumni that have supported our Air-Conditioning Campaign which will allow us to reopen school with fully air-conditioned classrooms for the first time in our hundred+ year history. Another historical first – due to financial support as well as grants that we have received – is that we will be opening with one-to-one electronic resources for our student population. I will have much more to share about the Academy in future monthly messages in the parish bulletin.

In the meantime, enjoy the remaining weeks of school's recess and consider enrolling your child with us for the fall semester. You can learn more about the Academy and registration information at www.sjcalic.org.

In gratitude,

Luke Nawrocki, Principal
