Letter from the Pastor / Carta del Pastor

Merry Christmas and happy new year to all the people of Corpus Christi Church!

Each one of us has this natural longing to be in a family. No one and nothing can take that desire away from us.

In the gospel today, Mary and Joseph were so worried to have lost Jesus on their way back to Nazareth. Back then, people travelled in large groups for security. Women and children formed one group, men another. Thus, it is possible that Joseph and Mary could go a whole travelling day without seeing each other. Jesus, at this time, had turned twelve, and was therefore counted as a man, no longer a child. The Finding of Jesus in the Temple marks a pivotal moment in Jesus' life. He was a boy; now a man. Considered now as an adult, Jesus took his rightful place among the adults in the Temple. He was no longer confined to the Women's Court when he visited the Temple in Jerusalem with his family.

The feast of the Holy Family reminds us how a Christian family should be. There is always happiness when everyone is united and reunited... Let us find this familial joy every time we are reunited with Jesus in the sacraments, especially in the Eucharist and Reconciliation.

Devotedly in Christ,

MONSIGNOR JONAS ACHACOSO, JCD

¡Feliz Navidad y Año Nuevo a toda la gente de la Iglesia de Corpus Christi!

Cada uno de nosotros tiene este anhelo natural de estar en una familia. Nadie ni nada puede quitarnos ese deseo.

En el evangelio de hoy, María y José estaban tan preocupados por haber perdido a Jesús en su camino de regreso a Nazaret. En ese entonces, la gente viajaba en grandes grupos por seguridad. Las mujeres y los niños formaban un grupo, los hombres otro. Así, es posible que José y María pudieran pasar un día entero de viaje sin verse. Jesús, en ese momento, había cumplido doce años y, por lo tanto, se lo contaba como un hombre, ya no como un niño. El hallazgo de Jesús en el templo marca un momento crucial en la vida de Jesús. Él fue un niño; ahora un hombre. Considerado ahora como un adulto, Jesús tomó el lugar que le correspondía entre los adultos en el Templo. Ya no estaba confinado a la corte de mujeres cuando visitó el Templo de Jerusalén con su familia.

La fiesta de la Sagrada Familia nos recuerda cómo debe ser una familia cristiana. Siempre hay felicidad cuando todos están unidos y reunidos... Busquemos esta alegría familiar cada vez que nos reunimos con Jesús en los sacramentos, especialmente en la Eucaristía y la Reconciliación.

Devotamente en Cristo,

MONSEÑOR JONAS ACHACOSO, JCD

December 2021

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of the board of directors, the teachers and staff, and the children and their families, I extend greetings and best wishes to you for a blessed Christmas and a happy and healthy New Year.

Each year for over forty years, with the exception of the Covid Christmas of 2020, St. Joseph students presented a Christmas production involving all of the students on all the grade levels. Unfortunately, Covid protocols prevent us from staging a production again this year. Instead, our fifth graders have produced a living Christmas card that we are making available on our website (www.sjcalic.org), and we will be sending it to each of our aligned parishes for posting as well.

We hope that you will enjoy it with your families and friends. We look forward to a bright future and being in contact again in 2022.

Merry Christmas!

Sincerely,

Luke Nawrocki
Principal
